Dear

Wishing you a Merry Christmas
from the North Pole!

Well, well, what an exciting and special time of year!

Here at the North Pole, everyone is busy getting ready for Christmas Eve. Mrs. Claus has been keeping everyone in a good mood with her yummy hot chocolate, and the Reindeer are eating lots of carrots and hay to get ready to pull my sleigh.

I already have some toys made ready just for you. I do hope you are looking forward to opening them on Christmas morning!

Be sure to go to bed in good time on Christmas Eve, and don't forget to leave treat out for the reindeer, if you can; they work up quite an appetite during our long journey.

See you soon!

Santa Claus
